There are 6 municipalities right now with BWA's..... TCEQ is putting the list together now and will forward to me shortly..... I will send to you as soon as I see it.

Also, TCEQ may start making calls to DW and WWTP's tomorrow depending on direction they get from upper management (decision will come after their 10 am meeting)..... I will let you know about this too.

We have looked and have not seen anything, and my belief based on conversations with Mike McAteer who talked with TCEQ they do not have the info either. That may be incorrect

I assumed the city would have to notify TCEQ if they issue the advisory and that TCEQ would have a list of those...

So who does keep the official list of BWAs issued to this point... TCEQ ?? Do we have access to this list... I am sure FEMA would like to have that in their SitRep this afternoon...
